

MOVITE 2010 Spring Meeting
"New Directions, New Connections"

A Call for Abstracts

The technical program committee for the 2010 Conference is inviting students and professionals in the transportation engineering and planning communities to submit abstracts for presentation at the spring 2010 MOVITE Meeting. Abstracts should show a connection to the conference theme, "New Directions, New Connections", be no more than 500 words in length, and include the name and affiliation of all author(s). All abstracts submitted will undergo a peer review, and should be emailed in PDF format to the technical program co-chair Robert Rescot at rrescot@ku.edu no later than October 26, 2009. Abstracts chosen for presentation will be notified by November 30, 2009, and authors should then submit a brief biographical sketch of 150 words or less to be included in the program by December 18, 2009.

Suggested topics areas:

- Intelligent Transportation Systems
- Multi-Modal
- Operations
- Planning
- Safety
- Transportation Financing

Submission Deadline: October 26, 2009

Note: Each abstract must have at least one author attending the conference.
